DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
HISTORY OF TECHNOLOGY AND/OR THE ENVIRONMENT / ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

Technology/Environmental. The Department of History, Clemson University, invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professorship to begin August 15, 2006. Preference for 19th and 20th century US. Applicants can expect to teach introductory courses in the history of technology and environmental history and to participate in development of a general education STS program, in addition to upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in the candidate's field. Salary competitive and commensurate with experience. PhD in hand by August 16, 2006. Applicants should display promise of teaching excellence and strong evidence of scholarly potential. The search committee will begin reviewing applications on October 1, 2005, and continue until the position is filled. The committee intends to interview at the HSS/SHOT meeting in Minneapolis, November 3-6, and possibly also at the AHA annual meeting. Send letter of application, cv, at least three letters of recommendation, and a writing sample to Pamela Mack, Chair, Screening Committee, Department of History, Clemson University, Clemson, SC, 29634-0527. Clemson University is an AA/EOE.