Assistant Professor, Equine Science
Animal & Veterinary Sciences Department
Clemson University
Clemson, SC

Position:  Clemson University Animal & Veterinary Sciences Department seeks qualified applicants to fill a 12 month, tenure-track Assistant Professor position in the Equine Sciences. The successful candidate will have 50% teaching/research and 50% extension responsibilities. Responsibilities include a collaborative applied research and extension program, the teaching of at least one senior/graduate level class per academic year and securing extramural support for his/her program. Collaborative efforts with faculty in the department and other units in support of the equine science program is expected. Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. The tentative starting date for the position is June 15, 2006.

Qualifications: The applicant should have a PhD. or equivalent degree in animal or equine science with an emphasis in horse nutrition, reproduction or exercise physiology. A broad background in equine science with good written and oral communication skills is a requisite. Candidates with equine industry experience or national/regional horse experience are preferred.

Application Procedures & Deadlines: Applications will be accepted until January 31, 2006. Review of applications will commence February 2006. Direct all applications or inquiries to:

Dr. Mickey Hall, Associate Professor
Clemson University, Animal & Veterinary Sciences Dept.
136 Poole Agricultural Center
Clemson, SC 29634-0311
(864) 656-4022 Phone
(864) 656-1033 Fax
e-mail: mahall@clemson.edu

Applicants should submit a letter of intent, complete C.V. with contact information with at least three references, transcripts and a statement of their research, extension and teaching philosophies.

_Clemson University is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity, and the diversity of its workforce. "Clemson University does not discriminate against any person or group on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran's status." An offer of employment is contingent upon establishment of identity and verification of employment eligibility as required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986._